

THE SYCAMORE GRILL/CHEF PAULA & FRIENDS

Longtime Chef Paula Sims Ballard brings her amazing culinary creations to Atlanta-area dinner guests nightly. Born and raised in New Orleans, her cooking skills came naturally. In an area synonymous with, among other things, great food, she takes the approach that “It’s not just sustenance, but a way of life.”

As Executive Chef and Co-Owner of The Sycamore Grill in Stone Mountain, Georgia, Chef Paula dazzles her guests with an eclectic blend of New American fusion. She and business partner, Enid Britton, have taken the Sycamore Grill to new heights offering the finest in southern hospitality. “The Grill,” as it’s affectionately known, is a quaintly housed gem tucked into a converted Southern mansion constructed in 1836 and is open Tuesday-Saturday for dinner and weekend brunch. There are six dining rooms, outdoor patio seating and a full-service bar.

Chef Paula’s passion for cooking in the spirit of having a “good ole time” has spawned “Chef Paula & Friends.” She describes it as a chef table/private dining spin-off that brings the elegance and style of a fine dining restaurant to you.

Catering involves prepared food delivered then reheated, whereas dishes prepared by Chef Paula & Friends are created in your home from start to finish. You and your guests are immediately served just like in a restaurant.

Relax, dine and enjoy!
